

January 2007

PRAXIS SHORTLISTED FOR PRESTIGIOUS TRAINING AWARD

The Praxis Group has been shortlisted for the IOD-Guernsey Training Agency Excellence in Training Award.

The award which is a category of the Guernsey Awards for Achievement, is presented to the organisation that can best demonstrate its commitment to training and staff development in the workplace, the quality of training and its relevance to the business.

The judging panel, made up of representatives from the IOD and the Guernsey Training Agency, announced the shortlist of just four companies after hearing presentations and questioning all the nominees.

Tim Cumming, Training Director of the Praxis Group said 'We are delighted to have reached the final four. Well trained, knowledgeable employees are a valuable resource for any business and the Praxis Group is committed to investing in its staff to enable them to develop personal confidence and skills in line with the Group's business objectives.'

Sponsored by the States of Guernsey, Commerce and Employment Department the Guernsey Awards for Achievement is a major showcase for the island's best corporate and community talent. This annual event is now in its 21st year

The award winner will be announced at the Guernsey Awards for Achievement Gala Presentation on 8 February 2007. The keynote speaker will be Lord Sebastian Coe, one of Britain's greatest athletes and responsible for overseeing all aspects of London's successful bid to host the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.